

TWENTY FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

LORD, TO WHOM SHALL WE GO?

Joshua proposes as the only valid option service to the Lord and to choose him and him alone, for it was he who liberated us from slavery and above all he invites us to totally reject all idolatry, and the people of God chooses this commitment above all. St. Paul describes the fundamental and permanent value of Christian marriage. It deals with a total and complete relationship, exclusive and definitive, comparing it to the total relationship Christ has with the church. Christ is the Spouse of the Church, he is its head and Lord. Christ loves the Church, he guides it and protects it. This is the model and example of all relationships between Christians, spouses parents and brothers. To love is to serve others. This Sunday is the final discourse that deals with the subject of the "Bread of life" of the sixth chapter of the Gospel of John, which will be followed by St. Mark.

DID YOU KNOW

Get ready for back to school!

It's that time of year again to pack up your children's backpacks and send them off to make new friends and learn new things. Before the first day of school, parents should take steps to ensure their child's safety while they're in the care of teachers and school staff. Meet all the teachers and adults that your children will see regularly. Talk to your kids about basic ground rules for safety, privacy and security. For young children, shared bathrooms are new, and they should know what to expect. Brush up on the school's plans for security too.
