

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

THE SUPREME JUDGE DESIRES OUR SALVATION

The Gospel of this Sunday forms part of the teachings concerning the last days, also known as the return of the Son of God. At the heart of this Gospel we must keep in mind the theme of the final judgment to be handed down by Jesus Christ as the Chief Judge. It is a strong message of keeping vigilance and of hope in the salvation brought by Christ.

The Cosmic signs announced by Jesus have as their goal the coming of the final judgment. The importance for the Christian believer is not the fear of the unknown or the power of the various and diverse events which can signal the return of our Lord Jesus Christ, as he promised. The presence of the Son of God is the central message of this Sunday. The vision of the victorious return of the Lord, defeating and routing all his enemies, is completed and fulfilled with the gathering of the redeemed, of all those who are saved, of the whole people of God. Christ is the only one who has the power to bring us together with his loving call and convocation to salvation today and on that day of universal salvation.
